Chaubebandha Bridge uprooted of ballast Water supply cut to 15 min in Ward No 12 The state of the s

Central Chronicle News

Rajim, Feb 03: The uprooting of the ballast of the Chaubebandha Rajim Parswani Bridge adjacent to the city is point of concern, as pedestrians have to suffer while walking on

This 500 meters long pleted in the year 2005 and was inaugurated by the then Chief Minister Dr. Raman Singh and sir then, the roads were not made smooth in 17 years.

According to information it was under the care of Dhamtari PWD but now Raiim PWD is maintaining the bridge and there are hopes of cleanliness and smoothening of the road at the time of Maghi Punni

Heavy vehicles will reach the district head-quarters through this route for the whole 15 days and as soon as the fair starts, all the big vehicles will leave via this route for district headquarter Gariaband and capital Raipur via Navagaon, Navapara, Dhamtari, Kurud, Dantewada, Nagri, Sihawa can also be reached through this route. This route gets very busy and they are by-passed every year by changing the route to cover the traffic.

It is necessary to tell that parking arrangements are made till here, as the crowd increases, parking arrangements are also given under the bridge and along with this, the police along with this, the police department deploys sol-diers for security by put-ting barriers, but the smoothening of the roads remains a big question, as the fair is all set to commence in a couple of days.
