China successfully launched a new spacecraft on Tuesday to replace its debris-hit spaceship attached to the space station, completing the first emergency launch of its crewed programme.The newly launched Shenzhou-22 spaceship, which docked with the Tiangong space station, will provide a return vessel for the three astronauts in orbit who are due to return in April next year. The previous crew used their return vessel to fly home on November 14, after their spaceship was hit by debris, which damaged the view window and made it unsafe. COLOMBO

Russia launched a wave of attacks on Ukraine's capital, Kyiv, overnight, with at least six people killed in strikes that hit city buildings and energy infrastructure. A Ukrainian attack on southern Russia killed three people and damaged homes, authorities said. The attacks came during a renewed US push to end the war that has raged for nearly four years, and talks about a US peace plan. Army Secretary Dan Driscoll met with Russian officials for several hours in Abu Dhabi on Tuesday, a US official told The Associated Press.

Driscoll, who became part of the US negotiating team less than two weeks ago, is heading up the latest phase of talks involving the terms of a possible peace settlement with Russia.

The US official, who spoke on condition of anonymity to discuss sensitive negotiations, declined to give details on how long the negotiations would last or what topics were being discussed, but noted that the Ukrainians were aware of the meeting and all sides have indicated they wanted to reach a deal to halt the fighting as quickly as possible.

Ukraine's President Volodymyr Zelenskyy said late Monday that "the list of necessary

AP WASHINGTON DC

US President Donald Trump has said that he will travel to China in April at the invitation of Chinese President Xi Jinping. In a posting on the social media platform Truth Social on Monday (local time), Trump said that they had a very good phone conversation.

He said that the call covered Ukraine, Russia, fentanyl, soybeans and other farm products, adding that the two sides had done a good, and very important, deal for their Great Farmers and that it will only get better.

He said the conversation followed their "highly successful" meeting in South Korea on October 30 and that both sides had made significant progress in keeping recent agreements current and accurate.

"Since then, there has been significant progress on both sides in keeping our agreements current and accurate. Now we can set our sights on the big picture" Trump said in his post on Truth Social.

President Trump also announced that he would host the Chinese leader for a state visit in the United States later in 2026.

According to a statement, the two leaders also dis-

Meanwhile, Japanese Prime Minister Sanae Takaichi reaffirmed close cooperation with the United States during a call with President Donald Trump, hours after he spoke with Chinese President Xi Jinping, Japanese state media reported.Takaichi said her conversation with Trump had been on the request of the US Presdient who briefed her on his phone conversation with Xi on Monday. Beijing and Tokyo have sparred over Takaichi's earlier remarks that suggested Tokyo could deploy its military forces in the event of a conflict in the Taiwan Strait.

President Xi reiterated China's support for all efforts conducive to peace and expressed hope that parties involved in the conflict would narrow differences and work toward a fair, lasting and binding peace agreement.

Namibian 'Adolf Hitler' set to win his second election

The name Adolf Hitler is reviled the world over for good reason. The German dictator and head of the Nazi Party killed millions of people, including Jews, through the Holocaust, and plunged nations across the world into a catastrophic war that it took decades to recover from. However, a Namibian politician with the same name, Adolf Hitler Uunona, is now set to win re-election on 26 November (Wednesday). Adolf was born in December 1965, in what was then South West Africa.

Adolf, 59, belongs to Namibia's ruling centreleft South West Africa People's Organisation (Swapo). The party, which has ruled Namibia since its independence, has campaigned against colonial and white-minority rule. Adolf serves the Ompundja constituency, which is in Namibia's Oshana region in the north. The small constituency is home to fewer than 3,000 voters. Adolf is set to win his fourth term in this seat, which he also previously won in 2020, 2015 and 2004.
