'Police working in tandem with BSF to stop cattle, drug smuggling'

> Cough syrup bottles, fake notes, heroin, opium and cattle used to be smuggled to Bangladesh... We are committed to totally eliminate smuggling... We have also stopped cross-border infiltration & trafficking of girls
>
> ■ Suvendu Adhikari,
> West Bengal Chief Minister

West Bengal Chief Minister Suvendu Adhikari on Thursday said the state police was working in coordination with the BSF to stop cattle, narcotics and counterfeit currency smuggling and prevent cross-border infiltration and human trafficking.

Inaugurating a Durga Puja in the Lalbagh area of Murshidabad district, Adhikari said the international boundary was being fenced by the Border Security Force (BSF) with logistical support provided by the police and the state government.

Giving a call for a "narcotics-free West Bengal", the CM said 5,000 bottles of cough syrup were recently destroyed near the India-Bangladesh border in Jalangi "as part of our objective to have a narcotics-free Murshidabad.

Appealing to the people to put an end to marriage of underage girls, he said 60,000 minors have undergone institutional deliveries in the state from January to June this year, and of them, 9,700 were from Murshidabad alone.

"I appeal to everyone to help us save the girls," he said. "Under the previous regime, girls as young as 12 to 15 years were married off and they became pregnant. This is illegal... Our government wants to reform the society and not remain confined only to administrative work," he added. He said a meeting will be held in Delhi on Oct 27 on river erosion. Erosion by the Ganga River is a major issue in Murshidabad district.

The CM said two puja pandals in the district have experienced "untoward incidents", and the police were probing to find out those "behind the mischief to spoil people's joy".

Adhikari said the number of pujas being organised in the state has increased to 58,000 this year from 45,000 last year.

Rtd customs officer shot dead in Bihar

Dheeraj Kumar
PATNA

A retired customs officer, Ramkumar Singh, was shot dead by unidentified assailants near Jain College in Ara on Thursday morning.

Police said assailants fired six to seven rounds at Singh before fleeing the scene. He sustained multiple bullet injuries. According to local residents, Singh regularly went for morning walks, following a nearly fixed route from Jain College towards Ramna Maidan.

The assailants are suspected to have been familiar with his routine.

Singh was associated with social organisations and had served as secretary of the Rotary Club. He was also associated with a Kshatriya organisation.

Police suspect a land dispute may have led to the murder, though the motive has not been established.

Investigators are examining CCTV footage from the area, questioning witnesses and checking whether Singh had received any threats recently.

Following the killing, family members and local residents placed Singh's body on the road and blocked the Ara-Patna highway near Sapna Cinema Mor, disrupting traffic for over five hours.

55 farmers get back land worth ₹100 cr in Rajkot; historic feat, says Dy CM

PTI / RAJKOT

Rajkot police has succeeded in returning land worth approximately Rs 100 crore, taken away through fraud by land mafias and moneylenders, to 55 farmers, who were the rightful owners, Gujarat Deputy Chief Minister Harsh Sanghavi said on Thursday.

Sanghavi claimed that the recovery of land on such a large scale was unprecedented in the country's history.

The documents were handed over to the farmers at a programme held in Shapar, where Sanghavi also inaugurated the newly constructed office of the Sub-Divisional Police Officer of Rajkot Rural Division.

"The Rajkot police have succeeded in returning land documents worth approximately Rs 100 crore to around 55 farmers."

Court asks Mahua Moitra to delete posts on chief secretary

IANS
KOLKATA

In the social media post, Moitra described Agarwal as 'Vote Chor'

A court in Kolkata on Thursday directed Mahua Moitra, the Trinamool Congress-Mamata Lok Sabha member from Krishnanagar constituency in Nadia district of West Bengal, to immediately delete two derogatory social media posts made by her about the current West Bengal chief secretary Manoj Kumar Agarwal over the latter's role in the special intensive revision (SIR) exercise when he was the state's chief electoral officer (CEO).

Agarwal first served a legal notice to Moitra over the posts and subsequently filed a defamation suit against her demanding a libel compensation of Rs 10 crore. The matter came up for hearing at a lower court at Alipore in South Kolkata on Thursday and at the end of the hearing the judge of the court said that Krishnanagar Lok Sabha MP will not be able to share any new post on social media making any defamatory comments against the chief secretary and will also not be able to re-share any old social media post related to the same matter.

The court also said that the social media posts that Moitra made on Oct 3 and Oct 6 must be deleted within 24 hours of receiving the court order.

The Trinamool Congress-Mamata Lok Sabha MP will be given a notice to explain why the court will not uphold the ban on her comments.

The judge of the lower court also said that Moitra's posts not just criticised the SIR process but also accused the chief secretary of illegal acts as the then West Bengal CEO.

However, the court added that the Krishnanagar MP was unable to present any suitable evidence in the court to support such serious allegations.

HC rejects Sen's anticipatory bail plea

KOLKATA

The Calcutta High Court on Thursday rejected the anticipatory bail plea of former West Bengal tourism minister and former Minister of State for Information and Cultural Affairs Indranil Sen in a money laundering case being investigated by the Enforcement Directorate (ED).

Sen, a singer-turned-politician, and his wife, Madhuchanda Sen, are accused of alleged irregularities involving the sale of fake passes for Durga Puja tours using the UNESCO tag. The amount involved in the alleged transactions was initially estimated at around Rs 60 crore.

'Whack-a-mole' tactic fuels Pak-backed disinformation campaign

IANS
NEW DELHI

Amid the ongoing protests, investigators have found that certain elements backed by Pakistan launched a multi-layered digital warfare campaign targeting India. They are examining how posts published by these handles gained traction and went viral, reaching a large audience across digital platforms.

The campaign was allegedly aimed at undermining the Indian government and discrediting its handling of the protests. While the investigation has uncovered the circulation of fake narratives, investigators are also examining the locations where these posts received the highest levels of engagement. An official said these posts were targeted mostly in states where a non-Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) government is in power. Posts were circulated most in Jammu and Kashmir and Punjab. "These elements were selective while choosing the location where they wanted these fake posts to go viral," the official said.

The operation began with the creation of a primary proxy account, followed by scores of additional proxy accounts. These accounts amplified the content posted by the primary account through coordinated activity, including artificial interactions among themselves, while keeping the focus on the original post. This created the impression that the content was gaining significant traction and attracting widespread engagement.

Officials say that after watching the engagement, other genuine profiles would join the conversation. This only increased the reach of such fake content being posted online. The genuine handles would in turn share these posts, and this added to the further reach of such content.

Bhajanlal congratulates Modi on 25 yrs in public life

PTI
JAIPUR

Rajasthan Chief Minister Bhajanlal Sharma met Prime Minister Narendra Modi in New Delhi on Thursday and congratulated him on completing 25 years in public life, first as Gujarat chief minister and then as prime minister.

Sharma said Modi's dedication to national service and public welfare was a source of inspiration and motivation for everyone, according to a statement.

He said Rajasthan's development was gaining momentum under the prime minister's guidance, particularly in infrastructure, investment and water management.

Sharma expressed confidence that the ongoing development initiatives would help Rajasthan achieve its goal of becoming a developed state by 2047.
