

CM Adityanath Felicitates Police Personnel, Says UP Was Brought Out Of 'Policy Paralysis' After 2017

Lucknow: Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath on Thursday asserted that the state, which was earlier 'marred with riots and curfews', was brought out of 'policy paralysis' after 2017.

The Chief Minister made the remarks during the flag-off ceremony of 87 interceptor vehicles and medal presentation for police personnel in Lucknow.

Addressing a gathering, CM Adityanath mentioned Inspector Sunil Kumar of the Uttar Pradesh Special Task Force (STF), who was posthumously awarded the Kirti Chakra, for his exceptional bravery during an encounter with members of the Mukim Kala gang in Shamli district.

"This is the first time that an officer of UP Police has been bestowed with the Kirti Chakra," he observed.

He added that 16 other security personnel from the state have been awarded with the President's bravery medal and 10 UP Police personnel have been awarded with the Chief Minister's bravery medal.

"When technology is incorporated into thoughts and behaviour, it also delivers results. The identity that UP Police has built today is the result of this very thing," he stated. "No matter who the person is, no matter how great they may be, no matter the pride of their position, if their security is removed, it won't take long for them to become a scared cat in an atmosphere of anarchy. Healthy thinking is possible only in a healthy environment...Therefore, the tagline of the UP Police is 'Your safety is our commitment,'" he added.

CM Adityanath further said that UP Police is effectively carrying forward the state government's policy of 'zero tolerance' towards crime and criminals.

The UP CM then referred to the historic Public Interest Litigation (PIL) filed in the Supreme Court of India in 1996 by former Director General of Police (DGP) Prakash Singh, along with co-petitioner N.K. Singh and the organisation Common Cause, seeking structural reforms to overhaul the colonial-era Police Act of 1861.

He stated: "Those reforms were first implemented in Uttar Pradesh. Moreover, according to the demands, we have so far made seven police commissionerates in the state."

In a veiled attack on the previous Samajwadi Party government, CM Adityanath said: "Before 2017, people were reeling under an identity crisis for long months. No one felt safe in the state. As a result of this Uttar Pradesh was being counted among 'sick' states. Despite being the largest state, it lagged behind in terms of economy, recruitments, technology, and implementation of welfare schemes for youth, women etc. People were left frustrated and disappointed."

"But things changed after 2017, the state was brought out of policy paralysis. We implemented police reforms here...Today, more than 14 lakh cameras have been put up across districts for security and investigation purposes. Integrated Command and Control Centres have also been created across districts," he added. —IANS

Akhilesh Yadav Keeps On Changing PDA Formula: OP Rajbhar On SP's Rajya Sabha Nominations

Lucknow: Uttar Pradesh Minister and Suheldev Bharatiya Samaj Party (SBSP) President Om Prakash Rajbhar said on Thursday that Samajwadi Party (SP) Chief Akhilesh Yadav was changing the framework for PDA (Pichhda, Dalits and Alpsankhyak) repeatedly. Rajbhar was referring to two candidates placed by the Samajwadi Party for the upcoming Rajya Sabha elections in Uttar Pradesh.

Pichda, Dalit, and Alpsankhyak (backward classes, Dalits, and minorities/Muslims) is a political acronym and social coalition floated by Akhilesh Yadav.

"Akhilesh Yadav keeps changing the PDA formula from time to time. Yesterday, he came up with the formula of a PDA family. 'P' now stands for 'Parivaar'," Rajbhar said, referring to Ram Gopal Yadav.

On Wednesday, SP leaders Ram Gopal Yadav and Dhanraj Parimal Nathwani filed their nomination papers for the Rajya Sabha from Uttar Pradesh. SP Chief Akhilesh Yadav and senior party leader Shivpal Yadav were present when the two candidates filed their nominations.

Incidentally, Ram Gopal Yadav is the late Mulayam Singh Yadav's cousin and uncle to current Samajwadi Party Chief Akhilesh Yadav.

"D' stands for the 'Daulat', referring to Dhani Ram, who is affluent," Rajbhar said.

"Now, only 'A' remains, and he will bring in some criminal to represent it. The new PDA formula stands for 'Parivaar', 'Daulat' and 'Apradhi'," he added.

Coming heavily on Akhilesh Yadav and Samajwadi Party, Rajbhar said that Akhilesh Yadav has insulted the Muslim leaders of his party.

"To the Muslim leaders of his party -- Loaders not leaders of the Samajwadi Party -- Akhilesh ji has thrown a shoe at them," the SBSP Chief added.

Taking a jibe at Akhilesh Yadav being indirectly connected to the Bharatiya Janata Party, Rajbhar claimed that the SP Chief has threatened his leaders that if they say anything they will be ousted from the party.

"If the father (Akhilesh Yadav) is a BJP's Rajya Sabha MP then the son (Akhilesh Yadav) will be too," the SBSP Chief told IANS.

The SP had earlier announced Ram Gopal Yadav and Dhanraj Nathwani as its nominees for the Upper House from Uttar Pradesh. Their candidature comes ahead of the biennial elections for 10 Rajya Sabha seats in the state.

Uttar Pradesh Minister Om Prakash Rajbhar criticised the SP's candidate selection and took a jibe at Akhilesh Yadav's PDA strategy.

Earlier too, on social media, Rajbhar questioned whether the SP's proposed candidates would represent its PDA formula, referring to the party's emphasis on backward classes, Dalits and minorities.

"Akhilesh ji, I have heard that you are going to field three candidates for the Rajya Sabha. Tell me, will all three be from your PDA or not?" Rajbhar said.

He referred to Ram Gopal Yadav as the first candidate and questioned how the remaining positions would fit into the PDA framework.

He also alleged that the SP's approach could involve promoting family members, wealthy individuals and people facing criminal allegations.

Rajbhar said that members of backward classes, Dalit communities and Muslim communities would want clarity on the party's strategy for sending candidates to the Upper House.

He also advised Akhilesh Yadav not to risk securing two Rajya Sabha seats by attempting to win a third.

The Election Commission had announced on September 22 that elections for 11 Rajya Sabha seats -- 10 from Uttar Pradesh and one from Uttarakhand -- would be held on October 16.

The terms of the sitting members representing these seats are scheduled to end on November 25.

The poll panel has also announced a bye-election for a Rajya Sabha seat in West Bengal.

The upcoming elections will determine the new members for the seats falling vacant upon the completion of the current members' terms. —IANS

Two Ascetics Found Dead In Shahjahanpur; Accused Held

Shahjahanpur: Two ascetics were allegedly murdered and their bodies burnt at a temple in Sutha village under Khudaganj police station limits in Uttar Pradesh's Shahjahanpur district, police said on Thursday.

According to the police, a case is being registered against the accused, who has been identified as Sumit, under relevant sections. The main accused, Sumit, has been taken into custody and is being interrogated.

The police said that information about the incident was received at around 7 am, following which local police, senior officers and a forensic team reached the spot and initiated an investigation. The bodies were found in a burnt condition, and evidence was collected from the scene.

"On October 1, 2026, at around 7 am, an incident involving two ascetics was reported at a religious site in Sutha village under Khudaganj police station limits," said the Shahjahanpur Police.

Police said a written complaint was submitted by Shiv Kumar, the caretaker of the religious site. According to the complaint, a local man identified as Sumit had recently been released from jail after obtaining bail and had been spending time with the two ascetics in the days preceding the incident. Preliminary information suggests that a dispute over the religious site's premises may have been a motive. According to the com-mplaint and accounts cited by police, the accused allegedly wanted the two ascetics to leave the premises. "Villagers have initially confirmed that Sumit had once told the two monks to leave, stating that he would now reside there and that he would have sole authority. Prima facie, this incident appears to have been a result of this very issue last night. All physical evidence was collected from the scene and both bodies were sent for post-mortem examination to determine the exact time and cause of the incident," the police said.

Police have taken the named accused into custody for questioning and are examining the circumstances surrounding the deaths. The exact sequence of events, including whether the ascetics were killed before their bodies were set on fire, is yet to be established through the investigation and post-mortem findings.

Further details are awaited. —ANI

Fire Breaks Out At Avinics Design Concepts Factory In Ghaziabad, No Casualties

Ghaziabad: A fire broke out at the factory of Avinics Design Concepts Private Limited in Ghaziabad on Thursday, prompting the Fire and Emergency Services to deploy seven vehicles to extinguish the blaze. According to the Ghaziabad Commissionerate Fire Service, personnel responded promptly and brought the fire under control with the assistance of seven fire service vehicles. No loss of life was reported in the incident, the fire department said. The incident comes days after a major fire broke out at a recycling factory operated by CKPC Recycling Technology Private Limited, located behind Silver City Mall in Ghaziabad's industrial area. The fire was reported late on September 25 and affected materials including mobile phone batteries, cells and motorcycles.

Three fire tenders were initially deployed to tackle the blaze. Firefighters used water hoses and mechanical foam to contain the fire and prevent it from spreading to an oxygen plant located behind the factory. No casualties were reported in that incident, although the factory sustained significant damage. The cause of the fire at the Avinics Design Concepts factory and the extent of any property damage remain unclear. —ANI
