Raut attacks Modi over foreign tour, questions PM's priorities

ANI
MUMBAI

Shiv Sena (UBT) MP Sanjay Raut on Monday launched a multi-pronged attack on the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) leadership, questioning Prime Minister Narendra Modi's absence during a domestic crisis, criticising the heavy-handed security of state leaders, and alleging total BJP control over national institutions like NEET.

Taking a direct swipe at Prime Minister Narendra Modi, Raut alleged that the country has plunged into crisis immediately following the elections, a situation he claimed both he and Congress leader Rahul Gandhi had previously predicted.

"Where is Modi? He is on a foreign tour of seven countries," Raut said. "The BJP is in a state of happiness, celebrating his welcome in the Netherlands. But Modi should come here—our culture is going into the abyss."

Raut further questioned the Prime Minister's foreign policy independence, aiming for India's global positioning and economic decisions. "Why didn't you talk about the Iran war? Did America not tell you or allow you to buy oil from Russia? We say this is a 'Trump-dependent' India."

Referring to Sweden conferring the 'Royal Order of Polar Star Commander Grand Cross' on PM Modi, Shiv Sena (UBT) MP said the Prime Minister is telling us not to go on foreign trips, but he himself is visiting countries.

"He will complete the century in getting awards. He gets the highest award in whatever country he visits... What will he do with this award?... He is telling us not to go on foreign trips, and he himself is visiting countries," Raut said.

Raut did not spare local and union leadership regarding public convenience and security convoys. He brought up a recent incident in Pune where a social worker recorded video evidence of Deputy Chief Minister Devendra Fadnavis's convoy causing massive traffic blockades.

"Fadnavis was in Pune, and a social worker made a video of his convoy. Police blocked the roads yesterday. You came to know that the nation is in crisis after the elections. Rahul Gandhi had predicted it. We had predicted it. Where is Modi? He is on a foreign tour of seven countries," Raut said.

"Devendra should appeal (to the public, or reduce this behaviour). How many tours do you have to do? Everyone has a strategy, but you are just sitting in the Prime Minister's or Ministers' chairs," Raut argued.

Raut backed Congress leader Rahul Gandhi's recent assertions regarding corporate favouritism and corporate clean chits. Commenting on the legal relief being granted to industrialist Gautam Adani, Raut noted, "Gautam Adani is being released. Rahul Gandhi is right in saying that there are still files left (to be uncovered)."

Namaz should not be offered on roads, conduct shifts if required: Yogi

LUCKNOW

Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister, Yogi Adityanath, on Monday asserted that offering namaz on public roads should not be allowed, saying that roads are meant for smooth traffic movement and daily commuting, and not for activities that obstruct public spaces or inconvenience common citizens. Chief Minister Yogi said that religious gatherings involving large numbers of people should be conducted in an organised manner at designated places and, if required, in shifts to avoid overcrowding and disruption. Referring to the issue, CM Yogi said he is frequently questioned about whether people in Uttar Pradesh continue to offer namaz on roads.

High Court allows Rashid to attend father's last rites

PTI
NEW DELHI

The Delhi High Court on Monday granted interim bail till June 2 to Bara-mulla MP Sheikh Abdul Rashid alias Engineer Rashid, who is lodged in prison in a terror-funding case, following his father's demise.

A bench of Justices Prathiba M Singh and Madhu Jain said during the interim bail period, Rashid shall always be accompanied by at least two police officials in plainclothes, who shall remain with him from the beginning of the journey from Tihar Jail until his return from Srinagar.

He shall be permitted to visit the burial ground or any other place of worship, but shall not be permitted to move anywhere else from his residence in Srinagar and Langate, the bench ordered.

Rashid sought interim bail on the grounds that his father, who was undergoing treatment at AIIMS, passed away on the intervening night of Sunday and Monday.

"Accordingly, due to the demise of the appellant's father, interim bail is granted to the appellant until 2nd June, 2026," the court ordered.
